

RECOLLECTIONS OF LAST WORLD'S TOURANDES FIRST IN $7,500 EVENT AT
PIPING ROCK MEET

Defeats Large Field of Two-Year-Olds in Two-Mile Race.

(Special to The Evening World.)
LOCUST VALLEY, N. Y., Oct. 18.—The second day of the autumn meeting of the Piping Rock Racing Association brought out society folk from the country side hereabouts this afternoon to this garden spot of a race course. From the clubhouse on the brow of the hill, and looking at the back stretch all the way round the rolling lawn, to the judges stand, groups gathered here and there to talk horse and view the races with an enthusiasm that lent zest to the scene. It would take several pages of the social register to enumerate all those present.

From an almost insignificant gathering of the exclusive horse set, the Piping Rock meets have grown in popularity to national importance. At present time in the first race there were 3,000 present and yet hundreds of people in the Club House were yet to be seen in their boxes.

The day wasn't all to be desired. The sun hid away behind the clouds and the only warmth to be found was in heavy wraps and coats, which most of the folks had the good sense to bring with them.

The card of races were most of the cross-country variety bringing out some of the best jumpers seen this year.

The feature, however, was the mile race for the Piping Rock subscription for two-year-olds. About 20 were named to start, which insured a rare old scramble. FIRST RACE—The Piping Rock Club for three-year-olds; to the winner $1,000; one mile and a quarter on the flat. Flying Fairy, 121 (Davies), 9 to 20 and out, first; Cherokee Rose II, 118 (Notter), 8 to 5 and out, second; Time—2:12.50. Only two starters.

KAMMER FAVORITE IN GOLF TOURNEY ON STATEN ISLAND LINKS

Champion of Richmond County Easily Survived in the Morning Round.

(Special to The Evening World.)
RICHMOND COUNTY COUNTRY CLUB, DONGAN HILLS, S. I., Oct. 18.—August Kammer was a big favorite when the semi-finals started this afternoon on the Richmond County Country Club course for the golf championship of Staten Island.

The present title-holder easily survived the morning round of match play this morning, when he handily defeated W. W. Van der Meer, Richmond County, 4 up. The youthful champion's game was a big improvement over his performance yesterday. He played the greens in much better form and his showing, if continued, will again win the island title. Kammer drew M. L. Pearey of the Home Club as his opponent in the semi-finals.

Tom Conroy, Richmond County, was another victor in the morning round when he won from Bert Allen of Fox Hills.

Jack Slater, the kid golfer, vanquished J. A. Janin of Richmond County in quick order.

Morton L. Pearey, Richmond County, like Kammer, was in better form and had little trouble beating A. P. Palmer, Fox Hills, 4 up and 3 to play.

Playing conditions were far from ideal when the field started its afternoon hole journey this morning over the picturesque Richmond County course to battle for the honor of entering the semi-finals. A penetrating wind, coming in from the lower bay, made heavy sweaters a necessity for both gallery and contestants when the afternoon semi-finals were begun.

Championship Division (second round)
Morton L. Pearey, Richmond County, 3 up and 1 to go; August P. Kammer, Fox Hills, 2 up and 5 to go; Thomas D. Conroy, Fox Hills, 2 up and 1 to go; J. Harold Slater, Fox Hills, 3 up and 2 to go; Richmond County, 3 up and 2 to go.

Beaten Eight, Championship Division.
First Round—W. W. Van der Meer, Fox Hills, 2 up and 1 to go; William S. Leeds, Fox Hills, 2 up and 1 to go; B. T. Allen, Fox Hills, 2 up and 1 to go; Charles Hitchcock, Fox Hills, 2 up and 1 to go; C. Newton, Richmond County, by default.

Second Division—Final Round—H. B. McCallan, Fox Hills, 2 up and 1 to go; Maurice Posey, Fox Hills, 2 up and 1 to go.

PENN USES FORWARD PASS IN GAME WITH BROWN

THE LINE-UP.

FRANKLIN FIELD, PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 18.—The University of Pennsylvania and Brown played their annual game this afternoon. The Red and Blue warriors, bent on victory, presented their strongest lineup, which was made up of minds at fullback and Bolger and Young at right and left halfbacks respectively. From the outset Penn used forward passes which netted them many yards. Bolger and Young were conspicuous because of their punting tactics. The Red and Blue team played well together and demonstrated its ability in convincing style.

ARMY LINE WEAKENED BY ABSENCE OF HUSTON.

THE LINE-UP.

WEST POINT, N. Y., Oct. 18.—The Army and Colgate clashed on the gridiron this afternoon. The cadets are primed for a hard game. Hobbs, Benedict and Ford started the game behind the Army line. The cadets line was weakened somewhat by the absence of Huston at guard. Hoge and Markoe were at the ends and give away early to Merrill and Britton.

DEVELOPING A KICKING TOE!

HOLY CROSS SCORES
TOUCHDOWN EARLY
THE LINE-UP.

WILMINGTON, Del., Oct. 18.—Miss Gladys Ravenscroft of Bromborough, England, won the women's golf championship of the United States here today, defeating Miss Marion Hollins, Westbrook, L. I., 2 up.

The match was an intensely interesting one, and although both girls have played better golf during the tournament the importance of the occasion will easily account for it. Both players were nervous, and the gallery, which numbered between four and five hundred, must have worried them occasionally. Both were fairly good in their long game, and although they occasionally made weak approaches not much fault could be found with their games.

Hardly had the sound of the referee's whistle for the game's opening soundly when Holy Cross scored. Being forced to kick, McCabe booted the hole to Harvard's 30-yard line, where Freedley fumbled. Donovan, the Purple's fullback, scooped the pick-up with one fell swoop and raced across Harvard's goal line for the first touchdown made against the Crimson this fall. Rogers kicked goal.

Three small penalties and some line rushes a few minutes later gave Harvard a life, Mahan being finally shoved through center for a count. Capt. Storck kicked the goal. At the end of the first period Harvard held the ball on Holy Cross's two-yard line.

Score after first period—Harvard, 7; Holy Cross, 7.

YALE SENDS CRIPPLED TEAM AGAINST LEHIGH.

THE LINE-UP.

Yale Field, New Haven, Conn., Oct. 18.—Yale started the game against Lehigh this afternoon playing with a crippled team. Puppely and Markie were out of the line-up in the back field. Carter playing end in place of Gile, who is laid up in the hospital. It was the first game that Lehigh had ever played against Yale and on account of Yale's poor early season record a large number of Lehigh rooters accompanied the team to New Haven. The Yale squad came on the field first and there was an enthusiastic cheer when the Lehigh squad arrived.

NAVY TEAM RESORTS TO FORWARD PASS.

THE LINE-UP.

Naval Academy, Annapolis, Md., Oct. 18.—Though there has been some rain during the morning and the grounds at the Naval Academy are rather soft, there was a nice clearing away shortly before the Navy and Dickinson teams lined up against each other here this afternoon with the full strength of the squad available. The Navy put the same team as that which smashed its way to victory against Georgetown last Saturday. The style of play was quite different, however, the Navy using number of end runs and forward pass plays instead of sticking exclusively to the line hitting tactics which has been its only gaining play so far this season.

ENGLISHWOMAN DEFEATS MISS HOLLINS FOR U. S. GOLF TITLE

Miss Ravenscroft Outplays Former New York School-girl by 2 Up.

SYRACUSE ELEVEN PLAYS OPEN GAME AGAINST TIGERS

Up-State Collegians Are Well Drilled in Defensive Tactics for Forward Pass.

THE LINE-UP.

PRINCETON, N. J., Oct. 18.—Despite the threatening weather, the largest crowd of the season filled the west stand at University Field to watch Princeton play Syracuse on the gridiron. Syracuse came down prepared to put up an open style of play. Bucknell had shown the Tigers what open play can be the week before and An-draws had coached the eleven in defensive tactics for the forward pass.

The development of the Tiger ends bodied all for the plays of the visiting team, for Shea and Lambertson, both of whom will try for right end, had improved during the past week. Swart at left guard was another change. W. Swart had won the right to start the game in place of Heyniger.

QUIMET BEATEN BY ROY OF BROOKLINE.

BROOKLINE, Mass., Oct. 18.—Poor work with the iron cost Francis Quimet, the open golf champion, his match in the semi-finals in the Country Club's fall tournament today. The champion was defeated by his club mate, F. H. Hoyt of Woodland, 2 up and 1 to play.

In the other semi-final match W. P. Kelly of the Brookline Golf Club, Bridgeport, Conn., disposed of A. G. Lockwood of Belmont Springs, 1 up and 1 to play.
